

Ambassador Service Study Resource Links

link to this document online: <http://bit.ly/3Uwhkgf>

Shifting Our Schools Podcast #231 for an interview about AmbaSS's template curriculum bit.ly/3WRYDoJ

Please contact me if you want to collaborate on AmbaSS' student-centered serve & learn abroad template curriculum
Bernie Weigand
541-621-7467
servsyn1@gmail.com

AmbaSS \$500 Scholarship
The application is actually the first two units of the AmbaSS curriculum: building a team, and building a blog

Template letter for student to propose academic credit from his/her school for his/her serve & learn project abroad. The AmbaSS curriculum facilitates the student's creation of their independent study and communicating their learning with others

Interview Questions survey, anonymous results 8/22/22+

Interview questions -Survey Monkey Please add your name and contact info to question #1 if you'd like to connect on the AmbaSS project

AmbaSS model blog
www.AmbassSS.com
The student will be creating a multimedia blog as the main learning product and communications hub for his/her team.

Jump In! professional development opportunity
This is ongoing in Tepic, Nayarit, Mexico, and tailored to the needs of participants

Fulbright Hays Group Study Abroad Grant (with paid stipend) would facilitate collaborators' own study abroad projects once AmbaSS has launched with Student ambassadors
<https://www2.ed.gov/programs/iegpsgpa/applicant.html>

overview

www.ServiceSynergy.org

*Creating Global Citizens,
One Friendship at a Time*